

An invitation to bring healing and community change in response to tragedy

Making the Dream a Reality

“We may never be strong enough to be entirely nonviolent in thought, word and deed. But we must keep nonviolence as our goal and make strong progress towards it.” - Mahatma Gandhi

October 2nd is International Day of Non-Violence. It is a day to recognize the peaceful effort to move in a direction of non-violent protesting, advocacy, and change. Philando’s legacy of peace and unity for a better tomorrow lives on through the Philando Castile Community Peace Garden.

Show your support by visiting the Peace Garden today and don't forget to check out the new Philando Castile Medallion!

Thank You Donors!

Thank you to all of our amazing donors! Your dedication to the Philando Castile Community Peace Garden has helped us maintain and make much needed improvements to the Garden, including the installation of the Philando Castile medallion this year. We are astounded by your generosity and hope to continue keeping the Garden a wonderful place for the community.

The Meaning Behind the Sculptures

Have you walked through the Philando Castile Peace Garden and noticed the large metal sculptures? These sculptures are actually West African Adinkra symbols. Each symbol represents its own guiding principle, and for the Peace Garden honor and signify Philando and his values. The sculpture featured here is Unity.
