

An invitation to bring healing and community change in response to tragedy

Making the Dream a Reality

Thank You for Your Support!

The Peace Garden would like to thank everyone that attended the Candlelight Vigil and Unity Day BBQ this year. We are always amazed at the community support for Philando, his family and what he stood for: peace, love, and unity. 10th Annual - Central Honors Philando

Central High School 10th Annual Honors Philando event will take place on August 17 from 1-5pm. Each year the scholarship is awarded to a high school senior, prioritizing those students that will continue education in teaching, administration, child development, school counseling and other areas that support Philando's passion for education. To find out more about this event, visit: centralhonorsphilando.org

Philando's Pantry Pop-Up Food Shelf

In honor of Philando's birthday on July 16, Valerie Castile with the help of Thomas Berry handed out 28 tons of food and supplies in Brooklyn Park to those in need in the community. This act of generosity continues his legacy of peace and supporting community with the goal of helping those who are struggling with the rising price of groceries. They are hoping to have more pop-up events and continue supporting those in need. To learn more, watch the video HERE.

The Meaning Behind the Sculptures

Have you walked through the Philando Castile Community Peace Garden and noticed the large metal sculptures? These sculptures are West African Adinkra symbols. Each symbol represents its own guiding principle, and for the Peace Garden honor and signify Philando and his values. The sculpture featured here is Peace and Harmony.
